Information: Governor Brownback enters meeting.

Discussion highlights:

The opening of the Smithsonian National Museum of African American History and Culture will be September 24th, 2016. Gov. Brownback will be an honored guest.

Key roles that Kansas played in establishing the National Museum of African-American History and Culture:

- Sen. Sam Brownback co-authored the bill establishing the Presidential Commission on the Development of the National Museum of African American History and Culture.
- Members from Kansas serving on the commissioned board; Eric Sexton; Wichita State University Athletic Director; Vice president for Student affairs and Beverly Caruthers Thompson, Topeka, KS Retired Teacher
- Topeka was one of 10 cities where a presidential commission held meetings to gather public comment

Governor Brownback believes that race relations in America is in desperate need of serious and substantive dialogue on how we got to where we are, and what we need to do to fix it. Gov. Brownback would like to see a presidential order calling for the establishing of a Truth and Reconciliation Commission for the United States of America. The opening of the Museum will be a great time for such a clarion call to be issued.

Law Enforcement and Community relationships

Race relations & law enforcement across Kansas communities is reflective of some of the same negative narratives we are seeing all across the Nation. Excessive force, racial profiling, lack of diversity. KAAAC commissioners want to see efforts to address implicit bias through training and policy interventions with law enforcement agencies across the state continued and placed at a high priority.

Commissioner Love shared information on the outcomes from the Fair and Impartial Policing Community Advisory Board Training held in Wyandotte and Johnson Co. in March of this year. Gov. Brownback was given a copy of the Nation Police Chief magazine that mentions the ground breaking work that Kansas has been doing in this area. Commissioner Elmore shared information about the training held in Wichita and about the City's new police Chief, Gordon Ramsay. KAAAC was one of the organizations that sponsored a community "meet and greet" with the city's new chief of police. ED Cox served on the selection committee that recommended the hiring of Chief Ramsay.

KAAAC Commissioners also recommended more focus on recruitment and promotion of minority officers.

Brown Mural in the Capitol:

KAAAC Commissioner wanted to know what kind of support the community could expect from the Governor's office in regards to making the mural a reality.

Gov. Brownback said that the Brown V Board decision was a part of Kansas history that all Kansans should be proud of and expressed his support of any effort to see to the completion of the mural. His office will let KAAAC know when the next meeting of the Capitol Preservation Committee is scheduled.

Governor Brownback posed for a picture with the Commissioners and thanked them for their local community service and for serving on the KAAAC.

11:27 recess is ended, meeting called to order.

“Coming together is a beginning; keeping together is progress; working together is success”. Henry Ford
Met with District Attorney, Marc Bennett:
Gain a better understanding of the responsibilities of the District Attorney’s office.
EXPANDING USE OF DIVERSION- 55% Kansas counties use diversion at just half the national rate - resulting in more prisoners and more costs to taxpayers
Next Steps- Group Outreach efforts moving forward:
DA’s Office 101- developing a workshop for community leaders.
Bi-monthly meeting with small advisory committee.
Committee will help to design and facilitate larger meetings with community.
Recruitment of African American Attorneys (currently 2)
Possible Next Steps- KAAAC
Marc is current President of the Kansas County & District Attorneys Association
KAAAC could work with Mr. Bennett to identify community leaders in the various jurisdictions to replicate the efforts being made in Sedgwick County.
KAAAC ED- Schedule a meeting with the Kansas Department of Revenue to help understand driver license suspension/revocation in Kansas. Group identified this as a beginning gateway spiral.
Senator Faust- Goudeau may be introducing some legislation next year to address this concern.

E. Payday Lending’s impact on the African American Communities in Kansas

The 2015 Legislature introduced SB 100, which would have set a single finance charge not to exceed 36.0 percent for closed-end credit consumer loans. SB 100 was referred to the Senate Committee on Financial Institutions and Insurance. A hearing was not held on the bill and the bill died in the Committee. During the 2016 Legislative Session, HB 2695 was introduced and referred to the House Committee on Insurance and Financial Institutions. HB 2695 would have added a new section to the UCCC, to be known as the “Respectful Lending to Kansas Seniors Act.” The bill would have placed a 36.0 percent interest cap on payday loans for senior citizen consumers, as well as allowed a modification for a senior citizen’s federal adjusted gross income for the taxable year. A hearing was not held on the bill and it died in committee.

ED Cox attended the “Everything you need to know about the Strategy Summit on the Proposed Payday Regulations” held in Washington DC.

With the forthcoming issuance of a payday rule by the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB), a coalition of consumer advocacy groups, from across the country, civil rights groups and others are working together to ensure that the proposed rule is strong and effective. Travel and lodging expenses will be covered by the coalition.*

Event highlights:

- Lenders charge triple-digit interest rates (nearly 400% on average) and will issue a loan as long as they can gain access to someone’s bank account—regardless of whether the borrower can actually afford the loan.
- The industry promotes its products as short-term, quick fix loans but 75% of its fees come from borrowers with more than 10 loans in a year, people solidly ensnared in the debt trap.
- The typical payday borrower will wind up paying $450 in fees to take out a $350 loan. One third of the time, when borrowers do pay off these loans, they overdraw their checking accounts, incurring yet more fees.

Discussion highlights: KAAAC commissioners believe that this is an extremely important issue for the African American community and that we need to become more versed on alternative opportunities for viable financial lending options and practices.

F. Cultivating and growing Minority- Owned Businesses

Attended the African American Entrepreneurship Round Table in KC
Grow Your Own – Entrepreneurship Based Economic Development

Event highlights:

Entrepreneurship based economic development focuses on creating strong local entrepreneurship ecosystems. No one program is sufficient to build the small business community alone.

5Cs of the Entrepreneurship Ecosystem

- Capital Financial Resources
- Capability Entrepreneur and Owner Skillset
- Climate Regulatory, Economic Development & Policy Environment
- Culture the local communities’ perception and support of entrepreneurship
- The Business Owner

G. Ban The Box & Criminal Justice Reform-- Smart Justice

Discussion highlights: Given the Chairman's (Love) experience with this issue he could assist the ED in preparing a KAAAC position statement/letter as a follow-up from the July informal meeting with the Governor.

97% of those sentenced to prison will return to communities how can we help them to become viable citizens and community members?

Follow up points:

Governor Brownback could "Ban the Box" by Executive Order. Giving people with criminal records a "fair chance" when pursuing a job with state agencies.

If a person has not re-offended (committed a crime in 10 years or longer)

Look into automatic expungement after required amount of time needed to fulfill sentence (parole, probation, jail time)

Determine what other States have taken this kind of action and find out who is working on legislation in this area and see how KAAAC can support the effort.

*refer to chart Severity of Crimes and Expungement -July 1, 2015.
